

Tech 2-3

≡ 10.05.16 ≡

1

ED Shelf - This site has many freebies for teachers. Find websites and apps for classroom organization, videos, screenshots, Google classroom, presentations, and much more. If you are looking to strengthen your use of technology in the classroom, this site will be one you might want to bookmark and refer to it throughout the year.

The logo for edshelf, featuring the word "edshelf" in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font on a green rectangular background.

2

Buzzsprout - Create podcasts with your students using Buzzsprout. This site is easy to use and it is free. Each free account is allowed two hours of episode time per month. Just create your recording and upload it to Buzzsprout to publish your podcast to share with others.

The logo for Buzzsprout, featuring the word "buzzsprout" in a dark grey, lowercase, sans-serif font, followed by a green icon of a microphone on a plant stem.

3

WatchKnowLearn - If you are looking for free video clips for all subject areas, this is the place to look. Videos are all organized by subject area and are easy to locate. The menu bar on the left side of the screen helps you to sort through each subject area. Within each subject area there are subcategories to help you narrow down your search to the skill you are teaching. You can even set the age category for the grade level you teach. This is a great site if you are looking for short clips to enhance a unit of study.

The logo for WatchKnowLearn, featuring the text "WatchKnowLearn" in blue and green, with "Free educational videos. Organized." in blue below it, and a colorful bar at the bottom.